Book lovers, get ready.

The Friends of the Abilene Public Library is gearing up for its annual book sale, which kicks off from 5-8 p.m. Thursday at the Abilene Civic Center with a preview sale for members of the Friends. Membership may be purchased at the door Thursday. Memberships range from $15 a year to $500 for a Lifetime Friend membership.

The sale opens to the general public from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Friday; 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday; and 1-4 p.m. Sunday. There is no admission fee.

Children's books cost $1.50 an inch. Regular hardcover or trade-size softcover books cost $2, as do computer software, books on tape, CDs and DVDs. Mass market paperback books and videos cost $1 each, which also is the price of records and cassettes.

On Sunday, it's the Bag-O-Books sale, during which $6 buys all the books that fit into a bag (bags provided).

Interested in volunteering at the sale? Call Amanda Shelnutt at 325-692-6082.

All proceeds from the annual fundraiser benefit the Abilene Public Library.
